A photograph of a river with a vine hanging over it. The river is calm, reflecting the surrounding greenery. A vine with leaves hangs from the top left corner, reaching down towards the water. The text 'The water cycle' is overlaid on the right side of the image.

The water cycle

Match

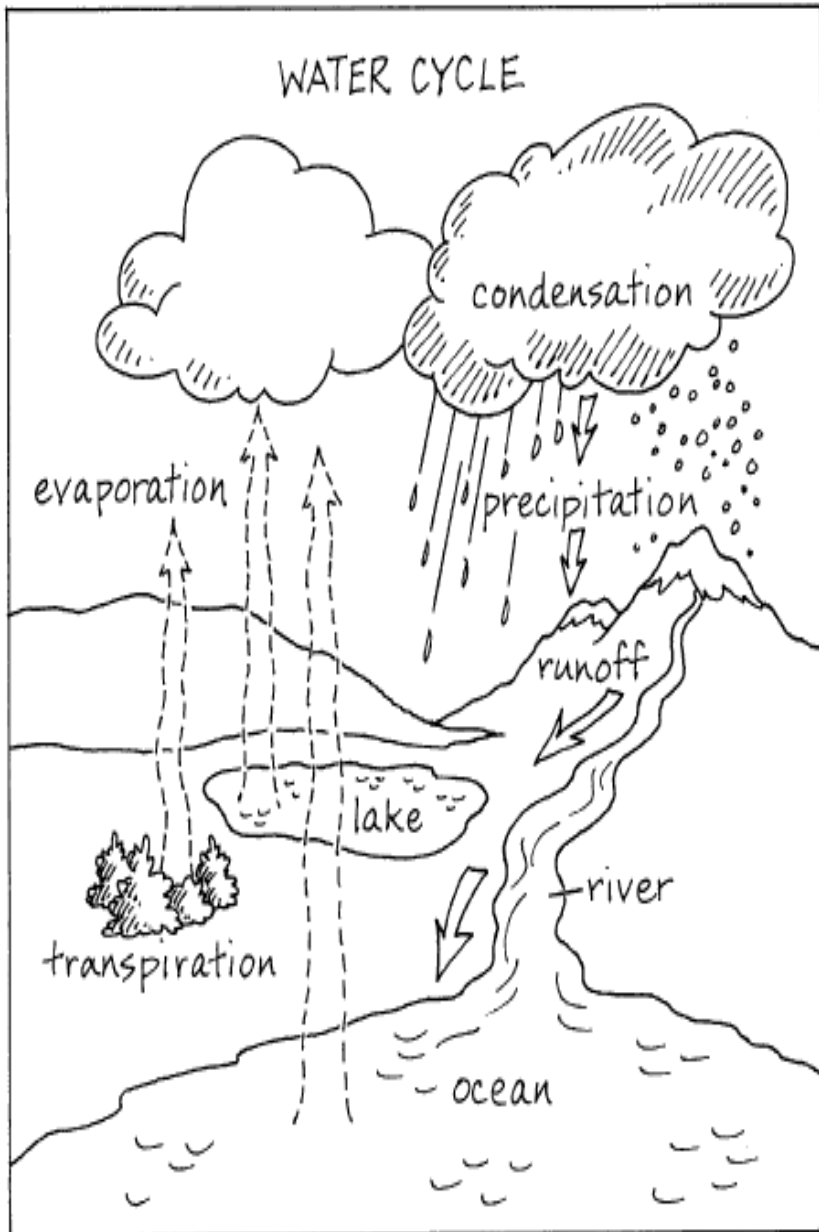

Condensation

Evaporation

Precipitation

1. When clouds appear it is called _____ .

A) Condensation B) evaporation

2. Rain and snow are _____ .

A) Precipitation B) evaporation

3. Water vapor going into the sky is _____ .

A) Evaporation B) Condensation

4. When clouds become heavy, it _____ .

A) Rains B) evaporates

Water Cycle in a Bag

- Materials Needed: a) 1 Ziploc plastic bag per student. b) water c) a window d) sharpie marker(s) to label bags.
- Instructions: Have students draw a diagram of the water cycle on the Ziploc bag with a sharpie. Tape the Water cycle Ziploc bag onto a window, preferably one that receives sunlight. Have students record observations.